Lyrics
Peering into this black mirror
Doesn't make me see things clearer
An infinite scroll
That's got no soul
Now and then I think that I
Shoulda had that beach day life
But that's not me
Frankly it's a lie
There's nothing better in my view
Than hangin round at home with you

I wanna be part of that magic
I wanna know where it goes
I wanna be part of that magic
I wanna know where it goes

Now and then I worry I
Will spend the rest of my precious time
Rollin the dice
Trying to conjure an ideal life
That gets me out
Out of my own mind
There's nothing better in my view
Than hangin round at home with you

I wanna be part of that magic
I wanna know where it goes
I wanna be part of that magic
I wanna know where it goes

And maybe it's foolish for strangers like us
Fallin into the mystic
With just a glimmer of trust
But I've got a good feeling
Nothing I can explain
And I'm compelled to spell it out with you

I wanna be part of that magic
I wanna know where it goes
I wanna be part of that magic
I wanna know where it goes
